If any person is afflicted with any disease where a good salve is wanted, we advise them to give Dr. Winger's Cerate first one-trial, and they will be convinced of its merits.

Dr. Weaver's Syrup, with the Cerate, is a surceure for all humors, sorus and diseases that arise from impurity of the blood.

At other valuable preparation is the old standard remedy and people's favorite, Purry Davis' Pain Killor. Our readers only want to know that this remedy is pure and gounded, and old by all our city druggists.

Dr. S. O. Richardson's Sherry Wine Bitters is very agreeable medicine, and valuable where a stimulating guished by the name of serious Acadeske, sometimas guished by the name of serious Acadeske and serious headache is also very common, being usually distinguished by the name of acress, headache, sometimas coming on sudd all in a state of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heraldeed by depression of apirits or acrosity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, over one or both eyes, and semetimed provoking vomiting; under this class may also be named Mearalgia.

For the treatment of either class of Headache the Cephalic Pills have been found a zere and safe remedy, religying the most scate pains in a few minutes, and by its subtile power erafficating the diseases of which headache is the unerring index.
